OFFICE OF THE FAMILY AND CHILDREN'S OMBUDSMAN
6720 FORT DENT WAY, SUITE 240, TUKWILA, WASHINGTON 98188

EXEMPT RECRUITMENT ANNOUNCEMENT
Office of the Family and Children's Ombudsman

POSITION: OMBUDSMAN

OPENS: August 5, 2003
CLOSES: When position is filled.

SALARY: $53,000 - $60,000 annually, depending on qualifications

LOCATION: Tukwila, Washington

OVERVIEW: The Office of the Family and Children's Ombudsman (OFCO) was established to ensure that government agencies respond appropriately both to children in need of state protection, and families and children who are involved with government agencies due to child abuse and neglect. As an independent office within the Office of the Governor, it is OFCO's mission to:

- Protect children and families from potentially harmful agency acts or omissions;
- Ensure that agency officials and state policy makers are aware of chronic and serious problems in the child protection and welfare system so they can improve services.

OFCO fulfills its mission by acting on citizen complaints, and by conducting administrative and systemic investigations. The office consists of the director, three ombudsmen, and an information specialist/office administrator. For more information visit our website at www.governor.wa.gov/ofco

PRINCIPAL RESPONSIBILITIES: The ombudsman:

- Conducts investigations aimed at identifying and analyzing system-wide issues that adversely affect children and families involved in the child protection/child welfare system.
- Works with the director ombudsman and experts in the child protection/child welfare field in the development of recommendations for addressing identified systemic issues.
- Assists with the preparation of written reports to agency officials, the governor and the legislature that include findings and recommendations for improving the child protection/child welfare system.
- Provides legal analysis as needed during the complaint review process.
- Supervises legal interns.
- Represents OFCO at meetings, professional conferences, and public events.
- Develops and manages projects as assigned.
